النَّبِيَّ - the prophet

Your hearts know in silence the secrets of the days and the nights.

But your ears thirst for the sound of your heart's knowledge.

You would know in words that which you have always known in thought.

You would touch with your fingers the naked body of your dreams.

And it is well you should.

The hidden well-spring of your soul must needs rise and run
murmuring to the sea;

And the treasure of your infinite depths would be revealed to your eyes.

But let there be no scales to
weigh your unknown
treasure,

For self is a sea boundless and
numberless.

Dedication: Howard Shortsleeves

No words can quite express the gratitude of the class of '72 to Mr. Shortsleeves, who pushed us, inspired us to be our best selves. And so we offer in appreciation not only in words but this, our book.

It is well to give when asked, but it is better to give unasked, through understanding. You give but little of yourself when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give. There are those who give with joy, and that joy is their reward. These are the believers in life and the bounty of life, and their coffers are never empty. For in truth it is life that gives unto life.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

Work is love made visible.
And all work is empty save
where there is love;
And when you work with love
you bind yourself to yourself, and to one another, and to God.
And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and the sharing of little pleasures.

Much have we loved you. But speechless was our love, and
 with veils has it been veiled.
 Yet now it cries aloud unto you,
 And would stand revealed
 before you.
 And ever has it been known that love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation.
 Yet this we ask ere we leave you, that you speak to us and give us of your truth.
 And we shall give it unto our children, and they unto their children and it shall not perish.

Let the waves of time separate us now, and the years you have spent in our midst become a memory. You have walked among us a spirit, and your shadow has been a light upon our faces. Much have we loved you. But speechless was our love, and with veils has it been veiled. Yet now it cries aloud unto you, and would stand revealed before you. And ever has it been that love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation.

You are good when you are
with yourself.

Yet when you are not one with yourself you are not evil. For a divided house is not a den of thieves, it is only a divided house.

You are good when you walk toward your goal firmly and with bold steps. Yet you are not evil when you go thither limping.
Even those who limp do not go backward.

You are good in countless ways,
and you are not evil when you are not good. In your longing for your giant self lies your goodness: and that longing is in all of you.

Faculty and Administration

No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.

If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man.

Fr. John W. O'Connell, Principal:
For your patience, integrity and emotional stability . . .

SPORTS

In your longing for your giant self lies your goodness; and that longing is in all of you.

But in some of you that longing is a torrent rushing with might to the sea, carrying the secrets of the hillsides and the songs of the forest.

And in others it is a flat stream that loses itself in angles and bends and lingers before it reaches the shore.

Some of you will go on to college . . . we will help. Some of you will start new businesses . . . we will help. Some of you will pave roads, build schools, open churches . . . or sell us cars, clothes, food, and fuel.

We will help provide the money to do these things.
